

Dear Commisioners: Unfortunately, there has been far too little coverage and discussion of the "media deregulation" policy that will be voted on June 2. If it passes, it will be a disaster for the free exchange of information and ideas in the media. We, the American people, own the airways. Do not set us on the course of media monopoly, where a minority controls what we see and hear. Sincerely, Hans West